

Sarah Robinson
Boone County Election Commissioner
222 S 4th Street
Albion, Nebraska 68620-1247

As your County Clerk and Election Official, I will be providing information and important dates during the course of this election year to keep the voters of Boone County informed. I would be interested to know if you find this information helpful. If you have any questions or comments, please contact me. Thank you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

< PRECINCTS AND POLLING PLACES >

How many election precincts are in Boone County?

- Boone County has 9 election precincts. Effective with the 2020 Primary/General Elections, Boone County became an "Elections by Mail" county. All voters will receive their ballots by mail. The Boone County Courthouse will be considered a polling place for purposes of returning a ballot or requesting a replacement or early voter's ballot.

What are the hours the Boone County Courthouse is open for voting in the Nebraska Primary on May 10, 2022 and the General Election on November 8, 2022?

- The Boone County Courthouse is open Monday-Friday from 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. The Boone County Courthouse will be open on the dates of the Primary and General Elections from 8:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M.

< CANDIDATE FILING INFORMATION >

How can a person file as a candidate for an office during any upcoming election?

- The candidate filing form is available through the Secretary of State's office or through the local County Clerk/Election Commissioner's office. Either location can provide assistance with completing the form. In addition, the Non-Partisan/Partisan Candidate Filing Forms are available on our website <https://boonecountyne.gov> at Offices>Election Commissioner>Election Information.

What are the candidate filing deadlines for the Primary Election on May 10, 2022?

- Candidates may begin filing for office on January 5, 2022.
- The incumbent (any current office holder) deadline is February 15, 2022.
- The non-incumbent (new filer) deadline is March 1, 2022.

What are the candidate filing deadlines for offices that only appear in the General Election on November 8, 2022?

- The incumbent (any current office holder) deadline is July 15, 2022.
- The non-incumbent (new filer) deadline is August 1, 2022.

< VOTER REGISTRATION >

Do I have to be registered to vote?

- Yes, voter registration is required in Nebraska to be eligible to vote.

- The only exception is that during a Presidential election, persons who have recently moved to Nebraska, or moved to another state after that state's registration deadline, may vote a Presidential-only ballot by contacting the county election official. An Application and Affidavit for a New or Former Resident will need to be completed and provided to the election office.

What qualifications are there for a person to vote in any election?

- 18 years of age or older on General Election Day
- A citizen of the United States
- A resident of Nebraska
- Not convicted of a felony, or if convicted, it has been at least two years since the completion of the sentence for the felony including any parole term
- Not to have been found mentally incompetent

If my 18th birthday is on or before November 8, 2022, may I vote in the May 10th Primary Election?

- Yes, provided you have completed a voter registration prior to the May 2, 2022 deadline.

Do I have to be a resident for a certain amount of time to register?

- No, you may register to vote the same day you become a resident of the State of Nebraska.

How do I register to vote?

- You may register in person at the local County Clerk/Election Commissioner's office during normal business hours.
- You may also register by mail. Voter Registration Applications are available at several locations throughout the state, including post offices and libraries. Additionally, a voter registration application can be obtained from the following websites:
 - <https://boonecountyne.gov> at Offices>Election Commissioner>Election Information and clicking on the Voter Registration Application link; or
 - www.sos.nebraska.gov at Elections>Voters/Voter Forms.
- If registering for the first time in Nebraska by mail, please provide a copy of a current and valid photo ID, or a copy of a utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or other government document which is dated within 60 days immediately prior to the date of presentation showing the same name and residence address provided on the voter registration application to avoid delays with your registration.
- In addition, you may register to vote through the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles when applying for or renewing your driver's license or at various other state agencies.
- You must sign your Voter Registration Application before it is returned to your County Clerk/Election Commissioner.
- In addition, you may register online through the NE Reg2Vote link found at the Nebraska Secretary of State's website at www.sos.nebraska.gov at Elections/Voters/Register to Vote and also at <https://boonecountyne.gov> at the NEReg2Vote link on the home page.

Must I designate a party affiliation?

- No, voters may choose from one of the four statewide parties currently recognized in Nebraska: Democratic, Republican, Libertarian and Legal Marijuana NOW or they may choose to not affiliate with any party by checking the non-partisan box on the application.
- If you wish to vote the Primary Election, where parties choose their nominees for state and county offices, you need to declare a party affiliation.
- If you register without a political party affiliation, you will receive only a non-partisan ballot at the Primary Election.
- Non-partisans may designate a party preference at Primary Elections and receive partisan ballots for the Senate and House congressional races only.

- Party designation has no bearing when voting a non-partisan ballot or in the General Election.

If I have not voted for several elections, am I still a registered voter able to vote in the upcoming elections?

- You may contact the County Clerk's Office at 402-395-2055 to verify if your voter registration is current and correct; or
- You can also review this information online at www.sos.nebraska.gov at Elections/Voters/Voter Information Lookup. However, if any corrections need to be made you will need to provide a new voter registration application to the County Clerk.

Are there situations where I would need to re-register?

- You must re-register whenever you change:
 - Your name,
 - Your address, or
 - Your political affiliation.
 - Failure to vote in a previous election does not require re-registration.

How is residence determined?

- By law, your residence is that place at which you have established a home, where you are habitually present and to which, when you depart, you intend to return.
- Leaving for temporary purposes, such as military service, school attendance, hospital stays, or missions work need not result in a change of residence for voting purposes.
- However, any permanent change in your residence or address will require you re-register to vote.

When is the last day to register to vote or to make changes to my voter registration in order to vote in the Primary Election/General Election?

- ❖ Primary Election:
 - April 22, 2022 with the Department of Motor Vehicles, Deputy Registrars or online and postmark deadline for mail-in voter registrations; or
 - May 2, 2022 at 6:00 P.M. for in-person voter registration at the County Clerk's Office.
- ❖ General Election:
 - October 21, 2022 with the Department of Motor Vehicles, Deputy Registrars or online and postmark deadline for mail-in voter registrations; or
 - October 28, 2022 at 6:00 P.M. for in-person voter registration at the County Clerk's Office.

< ELECTIONS BY MAIL >

When will ballots be mailed to the voters in an Election by Mail?

- Under Title 432, Nebraska Administrative Code, the ballots are to be mailed 20 days prior to the elections to all voters for which our office has not received information of a difference residence address.
- Ballots for the 2022 Primary Election will be mailed on April 20, 2022
- Ballots for the 2022 General Election will be mailed on October 19, 2022.

In what ways can I return my ballot and what is the deadline for returning the ballot?

- You can return your ballot by mail. No postage is required to be paid by you. Postage will be prepaid by Boone County.
- You can drop your ballot off at the office of the Boone County Clerk's Office.
- You can put your ballot in the drop box located in the West parking lot of the Boone County Courthouse.

- All ballots must be returned by 8 P.M. on the day of the election in order to be eligible for counting.

What happens if my ballot is lost or not received?

- An Affidavit for Replacement Ballot will need to be signed and provided to our office.
- If the ballot is lost or not received for any reason other than an address change, the last day an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot can be processed, and the ballot personally provided to the voter is 7:00 P.M. on Election Day. If the ballot is to be mailed, the last day an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot can be processed is 6:00 P.M. on May 2, 2022 for the Primary Election and 6:00 P.M. on October 28, 2022 for the General Election.
- If it is determined that your ballot was not received due to a change of address, then in addition to an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot, a new voter registration will need to be provided indicating your current address at that time. The last day an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot can be processed due to an address change is 6:00 P.M. on May 2, 2022 for the Primary Election and 6:00 P.M. on October 28, 2022 for the General Election. The deadline is the same no matter if the ballot is personally provided to the voter or mailed.

What happens if I receive my ballot and after I have marked it, decide to change my ballot before submitting it to the County Clerk's Office?

- If you receive your ballot, mark it and decide you want to change something on the ballot, you will need to return the ballot to our office. This is considered a spoiled ballot. Upon returning the ballot, you will need to sign an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot before another ballot can be issued to you. The last day an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot can be processed is 7:00 P.M. on the day of the election.

Will my ballot be counted if I forget to sign the return envelope?

- No. The envelope must be signed otherwise the ballot is considered a rejected ballot and not counted.

On the face of the ballot, it says "Use only the marking device provided."

- Ballot envelopes give guidance on how to complete the voting process and to use either a black medium pen or a No. 2 lead pencil in order for the M650 counting machine to read your ballot.

What if I use colored ink or a marker?

- Any device used to mark a ballot other than the above-mentioned may result in the counting machine not being able to read the mark and the vote not being counted.

Will my Ballot by Mail be confidential?

- Yes. Every measure is taken to insure the confidentiality of the vote. The ballots are kept in their respective precinct ballot boxes until May 9, 2022 for the Primary Election and November 7, 2022 for the General Election when the ballot boxes are opened to check the envelope signatures, prepare the ballots for counting and begin counting the ballots.

< EARLY VOTING >

- Early Voting Ballots may be returned to the County Clerk's office at any time but no later than 8:00 P.M. CST on Election Day.

Will my Early Voter's Ballot be counted if I forget to sign the return envelope?

- No. The envelope must be signed otherwise the ballot is considered a rejected ballot and not counted.

On the face of an Early Voter's ballot, it says "Use only the marking device provided."

- Ballot envelopes give guidance on how to complete the voting process and to use either a black medium pen or a No. 2 lead pencil in order for the M650 counting machine to read your ballot.

What if I use colored ink or a marker?

- Any device used to mark a ballot other than the above-mentioned may result in the counting machine not being able to read the mark and the vote not being counted.

If my Early Voter's ballot is destroyed, spoiled, lost or not received, what should I do?

- The voter can obtain a replacement ballot from the Election Commissioner by signing an Affidavit for Replacement Ballot.
- The deadline to receive the replacement ballot in person at the office of the Election Commission is 7:00 P.M. on the day of the election.
- To receive a replacement ballot by mail, the voter shall return the affidavit to the Election Commissioner prior to 6 P.M. on May 2, 2022 for the Primary Election and 6:00 P.M. on October 28, 2022.

Will my Early Voter's ballot be confidential?

- Yes. Every measure is taken to insure the confidentiality of the vote. The ballots are kept in their respective precinct ballot boxes until May 9, 2022 for the Primary Election and November 7, 2022 for the General Election when the ballot boxes are opened to check the envelope signatures, prepare the ballots for counting and begin counting the ballots.

< MILITARY & OVERSEAS VOTERS >

If you need to register to Vote:

- You may use the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA), National Voter Registration Form or Nebraska Voter Registration Application
- The FPCA is frequently used by military and overseas voters as it serves as both a registration application and early voting application.
- If possible, it is strongly encouraged that you provide an email address on your FPCA. The email address you provide will be the primary method of correspondence, meaning you will receive your ballot and other materials via email. If you do not have an email address, you may provide a fax number or mailing address. Whatever method you provide will be the method the county election office will send your ballot and stay connected with you.
- The federal Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment (MOVE) Act changed the effective duration of the FPCA. You will need to send an early voting request or FPCA each calendar year you wish to receive an early voting ballot.
- The Federal Post Card Application can be found at:
 - Boone County's website at <https://boonecountyne.gov> by going to the Offices>Election Commissioner>Election Information and clicking on the Military & Overseas Voters link; or
 - Secretary of State's website at www.sos.nebraska.gov and clicking on Elections>Military Voters or Elections>General Voter Information/Military or Overseas Voters and clicking on the link to the Federal Post Card Application.

If you need to Request an Early Voting Ballot:

- Fill out the Federal Post Card Application or Nebraska Early Voting Application. If possible, it is strongly encouraged that you provide an email address on your FPCA. The email address you provide will be the primary method of correspondence, meaning you will receive your ballot and other materials via email. If you do not have an email address, you may provide a fax number or mailing address. Whatever method you provide will be the method the county election office will send your ballot and stay connected with you.

- The federal Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment (MOVE) Act changed the effective duration of the FPCA. You will need to send an early voting request or FPCA each calendar year you wish to receive an early voting ballot.
- The Federal Post Card Application form can be found at the sites noted above.
- Once the county election office receives your application, you will receive a confirmation that your application has been received.
- The first date a ballot can be mailed pursuant to a Federal PostCard Application as a UOCAVA voter is 45 days prior to the election:
 - First date to mail a ballot for the 2022 Primary Election is March 25, 2022
 - First date to mail a ballot for the 2022 General Election is September 23, 2022.
- If you receive your ballot and are concerned that you do not have enough time to mail the ballot so that it will arrive at the county election office by May 10, 2022 (Primary Election deadline) and/or November 8, 2022 (General Election deadline), contact the county election office to make other arrangements.

Tracking your ballot:

- Check the Secretary of State's website at www.sos.nebraska.gov at Elections>Voters/Voter Information Lookup to track the status of your ballot.

If you have questions:

- Boone County Clerk/Election Commissioner at (402) 395-2055 or clerk@boonecountyne.gov; or
- Secretary of State's Office at (402) 471-2555 or sos.elect@nebraska.gov; or
- Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP.gov) 24 hours a day.

< VOTING THE BALLOT >

Am I able to vote if I did not re-register?

- Registered voters who moved from one residence to another in the same county, or who changed their name and remained in the same county will be allowed to vote upon providing a voter registration with updated information.
- These voters may be asked to cast a Provisional Ballot upon completing a certification and new registration form.
- Persons casting Provisional Ballots may check to see if their ballot was counted starting the second Wednesday after the election by visiting www.sos.nebraska.gov at Elections/Voters/Voter Information Lookup. Provisional Ballots are counted only after the information the voter provided on their certification form is verified.
- Persons moving from one county in Nebraska to another county in Nebraska must re-register in their new county in order to be eligible to vote.

When voting do I need to vote on all issues on the ballot?

- No. For Example: You may want to only vote the Congressional, School Board and Amendment and leave the rest blank. That is permissible and those votes will count in the total. The other races not voted will be in the under vote tally.

When voting and it says to vote for up to THREE, what if I only vote for two?

- The two you voted for will be counted in the overall total and the one not voted will be considered an under vote.

When voting and it says to vote for ONE but I voted for two?

- It is considered an over vote and neither candidate will receive a vote for that particular ballot race.

If I am registered as a Non-Partisan, can I vote for a partisan candidate in the Primary Election?

- No. To vote for a partisan (Republican, Democratic, Libertarian or Legal Marijuana NOW) office other than for a Senatorial and/or Congressional candidate, you must change your voter registration for the Primary Election on or before May 2, 2022 at 6:00 P.M., to affiliate with a specific political party.

If I am registered as a Non-Partisan, can I vote for the Senatorial and Congressional candidates in the Primary Election?

- Yes, you may ask for only one of the partisan ballots (Republican, Democratic, Libertarian or Legal Marijuana NOW). The election office cannot offer the ballot, therefore, you, as the voter, have to ask for a partisan ballot.

May I request help at the polls?

- The polling site located at the Boone County Courthouse is furnished with ADA equipment, known as the ExpressVOTE.
- Assistance may be rendered by a relative or friend.
- A ballot may be taken to a car, if parked within one block of the polling place.
- An oath form is to be completed by the person rendering assistance and "Assistance Rendered" is noted in the precinct roster next to the voter's name.

Can I campaign at my polling place?

- No. No person may campaign or hand out political literature within 200 feet of a polling place. Wearing political badges or any political insignia into the polling place on Election Day is against the law.

Persons may call the Boone County Clerk/Election Commissioner at (402) 395-2055 or the Nebraska Secretary of State's Office Election Division Monday - Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at (402) 471-2555 to report problems.
